How to request an article from Interlibrary Loan

There are two methods for requesting articles from Interlibrary Loan

- Request articles directly from ILLiad, our Interlibrary Loan Service, using the Article Request form.
- Request articles from within a library database search results page using Journal Article Linker.

Method 1: Request Directly from ILLiad, our Interlibrary Loan Service

Article Request

* Indicates required field

Before you place a request, please check the library's online catalog and Full-Text Electronic Journals.

Limit: Please see our Interlibrary Loan Policies.

NOTE: There is no way to pin-point an exact arrival date. If an item arrives too late for you to use, you are still responsible for any and all charges. All free locations are contacted first. If charges are connected with borrowing, you will be notified before the item is ordered so you may decide if you want the item or not. Materials with charges are never ordered without first consulting the patron.

Notice: Warning concerning Copyright restrictions
The copyright law of the U.S. (title 17, U.S. Code) governs the making of reproductions of copyrighted material. Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a photocopy or other production. One of these specified conditions is that the photocopy or reproduction is not to be "used for any purpose other than private study or research." If a user makes a request for, or later uses, a photocopy or reproduction for purposes in excess of "fair use," that user may be liable for copyright infringement. This institution reserves the right to refuse to accept a copying order if, in its judgment, fulfillment of the order could involve violation of copyright laws.

I have read the above information, understand it, and will abide by these guidelines governing the use of Interlibrary Loan.
