   No informational items were discussed.

Faculty Senate Report – Dr. Maureen Romine
Dr. Maureen Romine read her written report (Attachment J).
Dr. Romine added that one key item the Faculty Senate is working on is the athletic sanctioned absence policy.

Staff Advisory Senate Report – Ms. Maxine Salas
Ms. Salas informed the Board that the annual staff satisfaction survey was implemented and that the staff had a 57% completion rate. Currently the university employs 33 administrators; 142 professional staff; 93 clerical staff; 76 maintenance staff; and 44 technical staff. Ms. Salas reported that the third issue of The Pony Express, the staff newsletter, was available and disseminated copies to the Board (Attachment K). The Staff Senate will be scheduling a staff development week for late July.
Student Senate Report – Mr. Randall Brown
Ms. Serena Allingham, ASNHU Vice President informed the Board that the ASNHU held a luau for the campus community feeding over 300 students, faculty, and staff authentic Polynesian food that was prepared by a few NMHU students who are of Polynesian decent. The event included live Polynesian entertainment.

Ms. Allingham reported that she and Dr. Trujillo attended the HACU National Conference where topics of discussion included Title V Grant reductions which would affect services for NMHU’s Educational Outreach Department and the ARMAS Program. Another topic of discussion was reductions to the Federal Pell Grant, roughly ¾ of NMHU students received the Pell Grant.

Ms. Allingham informed the Board that the ASNHU elections are scheduled for the last week of April. The ASNHU has made changes to their constitution including raising the current GPA requirement and reducing the pay for some of the executive committee members.

Graduate Student Senate Report – Mr. Joannes Paules Yimbesalu
Mr. Yimbesalu presented his written report (Attachment L).

Person’s Wishing to Address the Board
Several people in the audience came forward in support of Dr. Thomas Corbin and requested that the university offer him a new contract. Rachel King, NMHU Legal Counsel informed the Board that they could listen to the audiences’ concerns but could not comment because the issue was a personnel matter.

Deacon Bill McKay read a letter from Pastor Patricia Halverson in support of Dr. Corbin’s employment contract. Paul Martínez, ASNHU Senator, and NMHU students Larry Tweet, Steven Fernandez, Greg Baker Jr., and Joseph Salazar also expressed their concerns regarding Dr. Corbin’s employment at NMHU.

President’s Report
President Fries informed the Board of the following:

- Hector Hernandez, NMHU alum, NAIA National Wrestling Champion, and head of the secret service for U.S. Presidents George W. Bush and Bill Clinton will be the 2011 Commencement Speaker.

- NMHU will award over 700 graduate and undergraduate diplomas this year.

- NMHU held a Research Day where faculty and students exhibited their work.

- Dr. David Lobdell had an art sculpture selected for display at the Beltane Fire Festival in Edinburgh Scotland.

- Dr. Michael Petronis, Dr. Jennifer Lindline, and Dr. Edward Martínez received an NFS Grant to study the paleontology climate at the Las Vegas Wildlife Refuge.
• The new student union building, the Felix Martinez Building, the Lora Shields Building, and the Natatorium have potential to reach LEED Gold Certification.

• Catchment systems that can hold up to 305,000 gallons have been installed throughout the campus.

• The NMHU Recycling Center has been very successful; however the university is hopeful that the city and county will establish recycling centers for the community soon to reduce the demand on the NMHU Recycling Center.

• Mr. Max Baca is working to host a recycling day for electronic equipment.

• Ms. Lita Bernal, Las Vegas Fire Marshall has been evaluating the fire systems throughout campus to ensure that NMHU maintains the fire and safety codes.

• 30 Coachella Valley High School students were bused from California to NMHU to visit the campus. All 30 students registered for the fall semester.

• The City of Las Vegas has scheduled two public meetings to discuss the Gateway Project and National and University Avenues. The meetings will be held May 3, 2011 and May 10, 2011 at 5:30 pm at the City Chambers.

• THE HVAC system at the Rio Rancho Center is not working but the university is working to get the system repaired before the summer semester begins.

• The Higher Education Funding Formula will begin to use outcome measures in addition to input measures. A revised formula must be completed by October 15th. Mr. Trujillo is on the Funding Formula Committee.

• Over 80 people applied for the Vice President of Academic Affairs position. The search and screen committee has narrowed the search down to five finalists who will be on campus for an interview during the next two weeks.

President Fries thanked Vice President Rivera for his many great contributions to the university and also for serving as Vice President for Academic Affairs two times during his administrative career.

Dr. Romine thanked Vice President Rivera for bringing stability to NMHU, on behalf of the Faculty Senate

Vice President Rivera thanked the faculty and administration for making it easy for him to return to NMHU for five months which turned into a five year stretch.

Regent López thanked Vice President Rivera for serving the university.
