5. Communication from the Administration (R. Gonzales)
   a. HLC update –
      i. Highlands sent a large contingent to this year’s HLC conference; fewer people will be sent to next year’s conference. The provost will ask for one page summaries from all of this year’s attendees on what they learned.
      ii. HLC wants us to approach strategic planning reporting in a different way. Dr. Lee Allard will present what he learned to the executive team.
   b. Reorganization
      i. Dr. Gonzales presented her ideas on reorganization to Dr. Minner, and Dr. Minner shared his model with her. He will be sharing a two-college model next week for feedback from stakeholders.
      ii. There will be a search for a Dean of Arts and Sciences as there will be a College of Arts and Sciences in the new structure. Dr. Sammeth will work on a SurveyMonkey survey for input from college faculty on if they favor an internal or external search.
         - Questions and discussion about qualifications for the position in the job posting. The rank of full professor is called for for deans in the CBA.
         - There should be an active dean search at the beginning of the fall 2019 semester.
• The status of the interim deans will have to be worked out after Dr. Minner has made his decision about the reorganization. The reorganization will inform the other dean searches.

c. Questions and Discussion about problems with the new course numbers and degree audit. Faculty have reported there has been student confusion.

d. CTE Director Update – The advisory committee has recommended hiring an interim director as the future of the center is decided. Dr. Gonzales interviewed and hired Ms. Veronica Black, who will started on April 22, 2019. Dr. Gonzales worked with Ms. Teri Law on the HIPS funds. The unspent funds from this year will not be lost. The funds should be carried over to the next semester.

6. Communication from the Chair (Sammeth)
   a. HLC – Dr. Sammeth attended sessions on helping gifted students from underprepared background at the conference.
   b. He will prepare and send out the SurveyMonkey on Arts & Science Dean search according to the handbook.
   c. Bookstore committee: Two faculty members are needed to work with the Dean of Students on this committee, which will address concerns with the campus bookstore. Dr. Sammeth will send a campus wide email asking for volunteers. There was a recommendation to have a center faculty member involved as they have different needs.
   d. Dr. Minner accepted our recommendation on the structure of the strategic planning committee. He would like the senate to recommend four faculty members. Dr. Sammeth will send an email asking for nominations.

7. Communication from Academic Affairs (Sandra Gardner)
   a. School of Business. Business faculty gave a presentation on their entrepreneurship program proposal. A survey that they conducted showed that there are many current students who are interested in starting their own businesses. Business faculty will be presenting more information on the proposal to the Academic Affairs Committee soon.
   b. The committee looked at the language requirement for international students. Dr. Jenkins asked that this issue also go through the international committee.
   c. Social Work faculty presented three special topic courses that they would like to make regular courses.

10. Old Business
    a. Communications with AAC committee
i. Looking at ways to improve communication between the committee and the senate.

ii. There was a call to add the faculty senate chair as a signature line on all Academic Affair Committee forms. There was also the recommendation to move forward with electronic signatures.

iii. Dr. Gadsden said that due to the volume of minor course revisions that the Academic Affairs Committee reviews on a regular basis the senate should be careful about what all it reviews. More signatures could slow the process down.

iv. Motion made by Dr. Kathy Jenkins; seconded by Dr. Steve Williamson to • Put the Faculty Senate Chair signature line on all Faculty Senate Committee forms with the possibility of revising this in future. The Faculty Senate Chair has the discretion to bring the forms to the full Faculty Senate or to the Executive Committee.
   • (13 in favor; 3 opposed; 1 abstention)

b. Resolve conflicting language in NMHU Catalog (Transfer of Credits, Military Credit, Training Credit)
   i. Dr. Sammeth reviewed further information about StraighterLine credits.
   ii. Dr. Gonzales reviewed the role of training credits.
   iii. It was noted that the current acceptance of StraighterLine credits is a mistake from the past that is not allowed under our currently policy. Dr. Gonzales stated that now we just need to educate staff in registrar’s and admission’s office staff about the policy.
   iv. Dr. Gonzales said that ACE is willing to come in May to give a training.
   v. Motions about this policy are recorded below.

   Transfer of Credits: Timeline
   Dr. Kathy Jenkins made motion
   Dr. Daniel Chadborn seconded
   As of June 1, 2019 for new admissions or new transfers, the university will no longer accept credit from non-accredited entities aside from transferring credits under one of the following prior learning option.
