

INTERESTED IN TEACHING ESL IN KOREA?

KORJOB CANADA RECRUITING specializes in helping its applicants secure quality teaching positions and guide them through every step of the process. Our staff is comprised of ex-teachers turned recruiting consultants, providing placements in both public and private schools. Our North American/Korean partnership covers all the bases, ensuring for a smooth, and stress-free transition into a new culture. Our services are offered free of charge and can be indispensable to anyone interested in securing a teaching job in South Korea.

We are presently filling positions in private schools to begin in within the next two months, as well as taking in applications for Public school positions to begin in the early Spring. Our employers consist of the S.M.O.E. (Seoul Metropolitan Office of Education), EPIK, as well as the SLP and Kid's Club chains of private schools.

WHAT MAKES US UNIQUE:

- We provide free consultation sessions for all applicants
- As ex-teachers, we represent the interests of our applicants. We take the time to find the proper fit according to our applicants' preferences. This allows our teachers to enjoy a year of adventure and prosperity, while providing them with a sense of security and piece of mind. We like our applicants to feel confident and excited about their job prospects by providing them with all the support and information they require prior to accepting a position.
- Our service is designed to transcend the language and cultural barriers to ensure that there is no miscommunication between our applicants and our client-schools.
- We support our applicants from the day they apply to the end of their contract.
