

Field Monitoring - Student Position with Tierra y Montes SWCD and the Las Vegas Wildlife Refuge

Position will be located at the Las Vegas National Wildlife Refuge
Student must work 20 hours per pay period (2 weeks)
Student must be a major in Forestry, attending the Forestry program at NMHU
216 hours are available for this position thru June 2010 at $10.00 an hour

Las Vegas National Wildlife Refuge will provide:

Supervision along with experimental learning opportunities that may include water quality studies; herp arrays data collection; development and maintenance of digital photo library; monitoring weather station and collecting weather data; organize, collect and maintain plant herbarium; and other duties as assigned.

Resumes must be delivered to Tierra y Montes SWCD, 1926 N. 7th St., Las Vegas, NM by November 25, 2009. Office hours are 8:00am to 4:30pm. For more information, contact Frances Martinez, District Manager, 425-9088.