

Freeman Indonesia Nonprofit Internship Program

INSTITUTE OF INTERNATIONAL
EDUCATION

The Freeman Indonesia Nonprofit Internship Program, an IIE-administered program funded by the Freeman Foundation, aims to develop student leadership and strengthen the nonprofit sector in Indonesia. IIE will select and pair Indonesian students pursuing U.S. degrees with U.S. undergraduates and arrange internships for them to work together for a summer at Indonesian nonprofit organizations.

Eligibility Criteria

- U.S. citizen or Indonesian citizen
- Sophomore or Junior in good standing at a U.S. institution

Program Dates & Location

- June 15 – August 17, 2010 (9 weeks)
- Indonesia: Jakarta, Bandung, Yogyakarta

Costs Covered by the Program

- Visa fees
- Round-trip transportation
- Room & board
- Local transportation
- Tuition & academic expenses
- Health & accident insurance

Potential Internship Fields

- Arts
- Economic Development
- Education
- Environmental Protection
- Public Health
- Other

Application Deadline :

February 15, 2010

Please visit

<http://www.iie.org/programs/finip>

for more information and the online application.