UNCF SPECIAL PROGRAMS CORP. WANTS YOU!
LEARN HOW TO APPLY TO TOP STEM (SCIENCE, TECHNOLOGY, ENGINEERING AND MATH) STUDENT AND FACULTY FELLOWSHIPS
AND INTERNSHIPS FROM NASA, U.S. DEPARTMENT OF ENERGY, AND MORE!

Are you an undergraduate/graduate or faculty in science, technology, engineering or math?

Are you thinking about your career?

Did you know that there are programs designed to prepare you for career success within STEM?

Join the staff of the UNCF Special Programs Corporation for a series of webinars designed to inform you about open internships and fellowships for 2009-2010 and to assist in the application process. Numerous webinars will be presented that will offer the following:

- overviews of the prestigious Harriett G. Jenkins Pre-doctoral Fellowship (JFPF), the Mentorship for Environmental Scholars (MES) internship, and the NSTI Summer Scholars and Faculty Fellowships at various NASA Centers, along with NASA Administrator's Fellowship Program (NAFP)
- review of the benefits and eligibility criteria for each opportunity,
- discussion on how to navigate and complete the online application, and
- a "Q & A" segment using online chat and/or audio with staff members

These one-hour sessions will be held on the following days:
