

Job Opportunity: Private Care-Giver

Students: Do you need supplemental income, and a rewarding break from your studies? Check out this part-time, ongoing opportunity in Las Vegas NM:

Needed Immediately: responsible, trustworthy, active and kind caregiver for young man with cerebral palsy that affects mobility, cognition and speech.

Mission: is to help him negotiate the world in a similar way to able-bodied peers.

Responsibilities: include helping him with personal hygiene (including potty) and dressing, arranging and transporting to community activities, shopping and errands and assisting with household chores, meal preparation and helping him reach his job and social goals. This job does involve lifting and requires reliable transportation,

How to Apply: you will need to submit a resume with 3 references, application through a state agency that involves background check. This job may be split between several people, therefore a flexible schedule is possible and it is ideal for a student.

Salary: pay starts at $10/hour and climbs rapidly after probationary period. This would look great on your resume!

For more information please contact Carol (mom) at 806-236-8042 or reply directly to email: carolkiesling@gmail.com