2018 Summer Internship - College Seniors

at Major League Baseball
New York, NY

The MLB Summer Internship Program is designed to provide exceptional students interested in a career in sports with a unique opportunity to learn firsthand about the diverse business operations of Major League Baseball. Those selected will gain invaluable work experience through challenging project assignments, information sessions hosted by MLB senior management, and various additional events organized by the Talent Acquisition department.

The summer program begins the Wednesday after Memorial Day Weekend and requires a minimum commitment of 10 weeks. Opportunities may be available in a variety of departments including but not limited to: Labor Relations, Special Events, Marketing, Corporate Sales, Legal, Community Affairs, Advertising, Information Technology, Human Resources, Ticketing Strategy/Analytics, Finance, and Public Relations. All internship positions are paid and based out of our New York City office. Please note that no housing, nor housing assistance, is provided.

All applicants must meet the following criteria for consideration:

- Current college junior entering senior year in the fall of 2018
- Excellent academic standing
- Strong verbal, written, and interpersonal communication skills
- Proficiency with MS Office Suite including Excel and PowerPoint
- Some previous work experience (part-time, internship or volunteer) related to the department(s) of interest is strongly preferred

Prospective candidates must submit the following materials to receive full consideration. Incomplete applications will not be accepted.

- Current resume
- Cover letter indicating the specific functional area(s) in which you are interested in. Please list up to three.
