

Criminal Investigator

GENERAL SERVICES ADMINISTRATION

Locations 2 vacancies in the following locations:

- Chicago, IL 1 vacancy
- Fort Worth, TX 1 vacancy

Duties

We are seeking a highly qualified and motivated individual to serve as an Criminal Investigator in our Fort Worth, TX and Chicago, IL regions. This position is located in the Office of the Inspector General, Office of Assistant Inspector General for Investigations. The incumbent is responsible for conducting and reporting upon investigations of suspected criminal violations affecting the programs, operations and employees of the GSA consistent with the Inspector General Act of 1978.

Responsibilities

As a Criminal Investigator, the incumbent performs the following responsibilities: Plans, coordinates and conducts complex investigations into criminal and civil violations of law and administrative matters relating to GSA programs, operations and employees. Performs investigative activities such as interviewing witnesses and subjects of investigation; executing search warrants, serving judicial process such as subpoenas and summons; conducting surveillance; and obtaining and preserving evidence. Presents investigative results orally and establishes and maintains liaison with investigative and legal personnel in the other Offices of Inspectors General, U.S. Attorneys, Federal Bureau of investigation and federal, state and local law enforcement agencies. Prepares written reports of investigative activities and final reports of investigation pursuant to OIG guidelines. Plans and conducts surveillance and makes arrests. Testifies in court proceedings.

Conditions of Employment

- Applicants must be U.S. Citizens.
- Background security investigation required.
- Medical examination (fitness) and drug testing required.
- Required to carry a firearm or ammunition. Annual certification required.
- Applicants must apply online via GSAjobs (see "How to Apply" section).

This position is covered by the law enforcement officer retirement provisions, and as such is covered by a mandatory age requirement. There is a maximum entry age of the day before your 37th birthday (except for veterans preference eligibles) for entry into law enforcement office positions. This position is covered by the special retirement provisions for Federal Law Enforcement Officers [5 U.S.C. 8336 (c) or 5 U.S.C. 8412 (d)] and have a mandatory retirement age of 57. If you are over age 37, you must have been or currently be covered by the special retirement provisions and be able to complete at least 20 years of covered service by age 57.

Qualifications

Salary Range

- Chicago, IL: $55,905-$87,933
- Fort Worth, TX: $54,120 - $85,125

Applicants must demonstrate in their resume and responses to the vacancy questions that they meet the basic OPM qualifications as well as qualifications described below. Applicants must meet all qualification and eligibility requirements for the position advertised within 30 days of the closing date of the vacancy.

More information can be found on <https://www.usajobs.gov/GetJob/ViewDetails/515369600>