NARRATIVE STATEMENT

In a separate document, please respond to the questions below in narrative form (use APA style if citing any sources). Answer each question honestly and fully. Do not omit any questions from the narrative. Each question must be responded to. Limit your narrative statement to no more than 3-4 typewritten, double-spaced pages. Make sure that your answers are clearly numbered to correspond with each question.

1. Describe your personal, professional, and academic experiences as they relate to your interest in the profession of social work. Include any specific work or volunteer experience you have had in helping/advocating for other persons. Explain how these experiences have contributed to your decision to pursue graduate study in the profession of social work.
2. Describe any life, volunteer, work, or school experiences that have contributed to your understanding of and desire to work with vulnerable or marginalized groups, ethnic and cultural minorities and other diverse populations.
3. Discuss your understanding of the Social Work profession and address how your experience and character will benefit you in becoming an effective social worker. What skills and knowledge do you want to develop through your social work education? What do you currently see as your strengths and limitations?
4. Have you ever been convicted of a felony? If yes, please explain and provide information specifying the sentence or other remedy imposed. An Authorization for Release Form will need to be completed. This form can be obtained by calling the Social Work Admissions Office at (505) 454-3310, or request by email to socialwork@nmhu.edu. It will only be provided to the applicant upon request.
5. Have you ever received disciplinary action or been suspended from other universities? If yes, please explain.

APPLICATION CHECKLIST

- Narrative Statement – 3-4 typewritten, double-spaced pages (total).
- Résumé/Volunteer and Employment History - Please include the month and year of volunteer experience and employment and the length of time of your assignment. Provide a brief description of your duties for each. List the three most recent paid employment positions. List field practicum placements in a human service agency. Indicate the type of agency and the clock hours completed. Use additional sheets if necessary. List most recent placement and employment first.
- Official Transcripts – One from each degree-awarding institution. Please request electronic transcripts when possible and request that the educational institution email to: socialwork@nmhu.edu. Otherwise, all transcripts must be mailed directly from the institution to: NMHU School of Social Work, Attn: Lawrence M. Montaña, Admissions & Recruitment, Box 9000, Las Vegas, New Mexico 87701. Note: transcripts submitted to the general NMHU admissions office rather than directly to the School of Social Work may result in a delay in processing your application.
- References – Submission of three professional references. (See detailed instructions in Application Requirements, #4).
- Signed Affidavit

Please provide the names of three persons who will submit references as part of your application.

January 17, 2019 is the priority deadline for submitting application materials. Applications received after the deadline will be considered for admission. However, enrollment priority is granted to applicants that applied on or before the deadline date. If an application is reviewed after the deadline date, the admission term may be deferred to a future term based on availability of courses. All applications are reviewed on a competitive basis based on GPA, human services work/volunteer experience, references, and the quality of the responses to the questions in the narrative statement and client assessment. Once the application is complete and rated, a recommendation for admission or denial is made to the school Dean. Applicants will be notified in writing by mail of the final decision.

Applications are not reviewed until all materials have been received. It is the responsibility of each applicant to follow-up with staff to assure all application materials have been received and that the application is ready for review. Incomplete applications will not be considered for admission.

AFFIDAVIT FOR SOCIAL WORK APPLICANTS

PLEASE READ CAREFULLY & SIGN: (Admission to NMHU is based on each candidate's entire academic record. At no time may a student neglect to report any part of his/her coursework. Every institution attended and every course taken by the applicant beyond the secondary education level must be reported on this application. If complete information is omitted, admission will be denied; if falsified information is submitted, admission will be rescinded.) Through this affidavit the applicant acknowledges that the School seeks candidates into its graduate programs that demonstrate a personal and professional commitment to a career in social work. A candidate acknowledges a commitment to work with multicultural and diverse populations regardless of differences in social class, economic status, gender, sexual orientation, age, physical disabilities, ethnicity and culture.

I certify that the information I have given on this application is true and complete to the best of my knowledge and that I have attended no other institutions than those listed. I understand that I am responsible for forwarding all official school records, together with all other application materials, and that these documents become the property of New Mexico Highlands University and will not be returned, transferred or duplicated for any other purpose. I also understand that if I am accepted to Highlands University, my admission is subject to verification of all official records from the institutions I have attended, including notice of graduation, when appropriate, and is contingent upon satisfactory completion of all course work prior to entering Highlands University. I acknowledge that the application fee is for processing my application and that such fee in nonrefundable.
