Sponsored Project Checklist of Prior Written Approval, Unallowable and Allowable Activities

Activities Requiring Written Prior Approval by ORSP or Funding Agency

(See NMHU Research Handbook, pages 17-18, for links to the specific policies described in the U.S. Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards)

Compensation—fringe benefits	Grant Agreements (including fixed amount awards), cooperative agreements and contracts
Compensation—personal services	Insurance and indemnification
Cost Sharing	Memberships, subscriptions, and professional activity costs
Direct costs	Organization costs
Entertainment costs	Participant support costs
Equipment and other capital expenditures	Pre-award costs
Equipment	Program income
Exchange rates	Real property
Fines, penalties, damages and other	Revision of budget and program plans settlements
Fixed amount subawards	Selling and marketing costs
Fund raising & investment management costs	Taxes (including Value Added Tax)
Goods or services for personal use	Travel costs

Federal and University Unallowable Expense Activities (unless approved by the funding agency)

Advertising media and corollary administrative costs (e.g., magazines, newspapers, radio and television, direct mail, exhibits, electronic or computer transmittals). Some exceptions exist (see Allowable Activities).

Airfare costs in excess of the lowest available commercial discount airfare, Federal Government contract airfare (where authorized and available), or customary standard (coach or equivalent) airfare, are unallowable except when such accommodations would: require circuitous routing; require travel during unreasonable hours; excessively prolong travel; greatly increase the duration of the flight; result in increased costs that would offset transportation savings; or offer accommodations not reasonably adequate for the medical needs of the traveler.
Alcoholic beverages

Contributions and donations (e.g., cash, property, services, and personal gifts)

Costs in excess of University severance policy.

Commencement and Convocation (some exceptions apply see Research Handbook for Federal reference).

Defending or prosecuting certain criminal, civil or administrative proceedings.

] Entertainment (except for programmatic purpose and authorized or approved by the Federal awarding agency or with prior written approval of the Federal awarding agency including refreshments, luncheons, dinners, or receptions, coffee makers, non-alcoholic refreshments and supplies).

Contracts with firms in which current or recent (12 months) NMHU employee has a controlling interest. Expenditures in excess of approved University budgets

Fines, penalties, damage and other settlements (e.g, parking tickets, traffic violation fines or similar violations of public policy expenditures, and reimbursement for theft of personal items) unless incurred as a result of compliance with specific provisions of the Federal award or prior written approval of the Federal agency.

Fundraising or lobbying costs (including financial campaigns, endowment drives, political contributions, solicitation of gifts, bequests, and similar expenses to raise capital or obtain contributions).

General public relations and alumni activities.

Goods and services for the personal use of employees (e.g., automobiles, auto repairs, tune-ups, tires, auto licenses, and similar expenditures on privately owned vehicles, including advances or loans to employees, work clothes, clothing cleaning, alterations, repairs or replacement).

Housing and personal living expenses of University Officers.

Insurance against defects in NMHU's materials or workmanship.

Interest payments (except certain interest coded as paid to outside parties & w/Controller's Office authorization.

	Lobbying.
	Managing investments solely to enhance income (except with prior written approval from the Federal agency).
	Membership subscriptions and professional activity costs (except with prior approval by the Federal agency).
	Memberships in civic, community or social organizations, or dining or country clubs.
	Memorabilia or promotional materials (allowable if used for "Employee Morale").
\Box	Organizations costs including incorporation fees, brokers' fees, fees to promoters, organizers or management consultants, attorneys, accountants or investment counselors (except with prior approval from Federal agency.
	Organized fund raising
	Proposal costs (normally treated as an indirect cost).
\Box	Prosecuting claims against the federal government.
	Purchases or expenditures without valid invoices.
	Purchases that are extraordinary or not a necessary expense (unless approved by the granting agency).
	Recruitment costs including special emoluments, fringe benefits, and salary allowances incurred to attract professional personnel that do not meet the test of reasonableness or do not conform with the established practices of the non-Federal entity and when a newly hired employee resigns, for reasons within the employee's control within 12 months after hire, the non-Federal entity will be required to refund or credit the Federal share of such relocation costs to the Federal Government.
	Retreats in non-University facilities (unless approved at Vice President or President level)
	Selling and marketing costs.
	Selling or marketing of goods or services (except as direct costs, with prior approval by the Federal awarding agency or unless allowed under UFG §200.421).
	Student activities (i.e., intramural activities, student clubs, student publications, unless specifically provided for the Federal award).
L'A
ге	deral and University Allowable Expense Activities
	Advertising media and corollary administrative costs that are specifically for performance of a Federal award to
	Advertising media and corollary administrative costs that are specifically for performance of a Federal award to recruit personnel and solely for performance of a Federal award to recruit personnel; procure goods and
	Advertising media and corollary administrative costs that are specifically for performance of a Federal award to recruit personnel and solely for performance of a Federal award to recruit personnel; procure goods and services, program outreach and to dispose of scrap or surplus materials acquired in the Federal award.
	Advertising media and corollary administrative costs that are specifically for performance of a Federal award to recruit personnel and solely for performance of a Federal award to recruit personnel; procure goods and services, program outreach and to dispose of scrap or surplus materials acquired in the Federal award. Capital expenditures for general purpose equipment of $5,000 or more, buildings and land.
	Advertising media and corollary administrative costs that are specifically for performance of a Federal award to recruit personnel and solely for performance of a Federal award to recruit personnel; procure goods and services, program outreach and to dispose of scrap or surplus materials acquired in the Federal award. Capital expenditures for general purpose equipment of $5,000 or more, buildings and land. Conferences (e.g., meeting, retreat, seminar, symposium, workshop or event for disseminating technical info).
	Advertising media and corollary administrative costs that are specifically for performance of a Federal award to recruit personnel and solely for performance of a Federal award to recruit personnel; procure goods and services, program outreach and to dispose of scrap or surplus materials acquired in the Federal award. Capital expenditures for general purpose equipment of $5,000 or more, buildings and land. Conferences (e.g., meeting, retreat, seminar, symposium, workshop or event for disseminating technical info). Employee health and welfare costs (e.g., improvement of working conditions, employer-employee relations,
	Advertising media and corollary administrative costs that are specifically for performance of a Federal award to recruit personnel and solely for performance of a Federal award to recruit personnel; procure goods and services, program outreach and to dispose of scrap or surplus materials acquired in the Federal award. Capital expenditures for general purpose equipment of $5,000 or more, buildings and land. Conferences (e.g., meeting, retreat, seminar, symposium, workshop or event for disseminating technical info). Employee health and welfare costs (e.g., improvement of working conditions, employer-employee relations, employee health, and employee performance that include equitably distribution). See §200.437 for more detail.
	Advertising media and corollary administrative costs that are specifically for performance of a Federal award to recruit personnel and solely for performance of a Federal award to recruit personnel; procure goods and services, program outreach and to dispose of scrap or surplus materials acquired in the Federal award. Capital expenditures for general purpose equipment of $5,000 or more, buildings and land. Conferences (e.g., meeting, retreat, seminar, symposium, workshop or event for disseminating technical info). Employee health and welfare costs (e.g., improvement of working conditions, employee relations, employee performance that include equitably distribution). See §200.437 for more detail. Entertainment costs that have a programmatic purpose and approved by the granting agency.
	Advertising media and corollary administrative costs that are specifically for performance of a Federal award to recruit personnel and solely for performance of a Federal award to recruit personnel; procure goods and services, program outreach and to dispose of scrap or surplus materials acquired in the Federal award. Capital expenditures for general purpose equipment of $5,000 or more, buildings and land. Conferences (e.g., meeting, retreat, seminar, symposium, workshop or event for disseminating technical info). Employee health and welfare costs (e.g., improvement of working conditions, employer-employee relations, employee health, and employee performance that include equitably distribution). See §200.437 for more detail. Entertainment costs that have a programmatic purpose and approved by the granting agency. Exchange rate cost increases due to fluctuations, but subject to availability of funding and with prior approval
	Advertising media and corollary administrative costs that are specifically for performance of a Federal award to recruit personnel and solely for performance of a Federal award to recruit personnel; procure goods and services, program outreach and to dispose of scrap or surplus materials acquired in the Federal award. Capital expenditures for general purpose equipment of $5,000 or more, buildings and land. Conferences (e.g., meeting, retreat, seminar, symposium, workshop or event for disseminating technical info). Employee health and welfare costs (e.g., improvement of working conditions, employer-employee relations, employee health, and employee performance that include equitably distribution). See §200.437 for more detail. Entertainment costs that have a programmatic purpose and approved by the granting agency. Exchange rate cost increases due to fluctuations, but subject to availability of funding and with prior approval when the change, results in need for additional Federal funding or to significantly reduce scope of the project.
	Advertising media and corollary administrative costs that are specifically for performance of a Federal award to recruit personnel and solely for performance of a Federal award to recruit personnel; procure goods and services, program outreach and to dispose of scrap or surplus materials acquired in the Federal award. Capital expenditures for general purpose equipment of $5,000 or more, buildings and land. Conferences (e.g., meeting, retreat, seminar, symposium, workshop or event for disseminating technical info). Employee health and welfare costs (e.g., improvement of working conditions, employer-employee relations, employee health, and employee performance that include equitably distribution). See §200.437 for more detail. Entertainment costs that have a programmatic purpose and approved by the granting agency. Exchange rate cost increases due to fluctuations, but subject to availability of funding and with prior approval when the change, results in need for additional Federal funding or to significantly reduce scope of the project. Fringe Benefits in the form of tuition or tuition remission.
	Advertising media and corollary administrative costs that are specifically for performance of a Federal award to recruit personnel and solely for performance of a Federal award to recruit personnel; procure goods and services, program outreach and to dispose of scrap or surplus materials acquired in the Federal award. Capital expenditures for general purpose equipment of $5,000 or more, buildings and land. Conferences (e.g., meeting, retreat, seminar, symposium, workshop or event for disseminating technical info). Employee health and welfare costs (e.g., improvement of working conditions, employer-employee relations, employee health, and employee performance that include equitably distribution). See §200.437 for more detail. Entertainment costs that have a programmatic purpose and approved by the granting agency. Exchange rate cost increases due to fluctuations, but subject to availability of funding and with prior approval when the change, results in need for additional Federal funding or to significantly reduce scope of the project. Fringe Benefits in the form of tuition or tuition remission. Publication and printing costs (must be identifiable with a particular cost objective).
	Advertising media and corollary administrative costs that are specifically for performance of a Federal award to recruit personnel and solely for performance of a Federal award to recruit personnel; procure goods and services, program outreach and to dispose of scrap or surplus materials acquired in the Federal award. Capital expenditures for general purpose equipment of $5,000 or more, buildings and land. Conferences (e.g., meeting, retreat, seminar, symposium, workshop or event for disseminating technical info). Employee health and welfare costs (e.g., improvement of working conditions, employer-employee relations, employee health, and employee performance that include equitably distribution). See §200.437 for more detail. Entertainment costs that have a programmatic purpose and approved by the granting agency. Exchange rate cost increases due to fluctuations, but subject to availability of funding and with prior approval when the change, results in need for additional Federal funding or to significantly reduce scope of the project. Fringe Benefits in the form of tuition or tuition remission. Publication and printing costs (must be identifiable with a particular cost objective). Recruitment costs provided that the size of the staff recruited and maintained is in keeping with workload
	Advertising media and corollary administrative costs that are specifically for performance of a Federal award to recruit personnel and solely for performance of a Federal award to recruit personnel; procure goods and services, program outreach and to dispose of scrap or surplus materials acquired in the Federal award. Capital expenditures for general purpose equipment of $5,000 or more, buildings and land. Conferences (e.g., meeting, retreat, seminar, symposium, workshop or event for disseminating technical info). Employee health and welfare costs (e.g., improvement of working conditions, employer-employee relations, employee health, and employee performance that include equitably distribution). See §200.437 for more detail. Entertainment costs that have a programmatic purpose and approved by the granting agency. Exchange rate cost increases due to fluctuations, but subject to availability of funding and with prior approval when the change, results in need for additional Federal funding or to significantly reduce scope of the project. Fringe Benefits in the form of tuition or tuition remission. Publication and printing costs (must be identifiable with a particular cost objective). Recruitment costs provided that the size of the staff recruited and maintained is in keeping with workload requirements, costs of "help wanted" advertising, operating costs of an employment office necessary to secure
	Advertising media and corollary administrative costs that are specifically for performance of a Federal award to recruit personnel and solely for performance of a Federal award to recruit personnel; procure goods and services, program outreach and to dispose of scrap or surplus materials acquired in the Federal award. Capital expenditures for general purpose equipment of $5,000 or more, buildings and land. Conferences (e.g., meeting, retreat, seminar, symposium, workshop or event for disseminating technical info). Employee health and welfare costs (e.g., improvement of working conditions, employer-employee relations, employee health, and employee performance that include equitably distribution). See §200.437 for more detail. Entertainment costs that have a programmatic purpose and approved by the granting agency. Exchange rate cost increases due to fluctuations, but subject to availability of funding and with prior approval when the change, results in need for additional Federal funding or to significantly reduce scope of the project. Fringe Benefits in the form of tuition or tuition remission. Publication and printing costs (must be identifiable with a particular cost objective). Recruitment costs provided that the size of the staff recruited and maintained is in keeping with workload requirements, costs of "help wanted" advertising, operating costs of an employment office necessary to secure and maintain an adequate staff, costs of operating an aptitude and educational testing program, travel costs of
	Advertising media and corollary administrative costs that are specifically for performance of a Federal award to recruit personnel and solely for performance of a Federal award to recruit personnel; procure goods and services, program outreach and to dispose of scrap or surplus materials acquired in the Federal award. Capital expenditures for general purpose equipment of $5,000 or more, buildings and land. Conferences (e.g., meeting, retreat, seminar, symposium, workshop or event for disseminating technical info). Employee health and welfare costs (e.g., improvement of working conditions, employer-employee relations, employee health, and employee performance that include equitably distribution). See §200.437 for more detail. Entertainment costs that have a programmatic purpose and approved by the granting agency. Exchange rate cost increases due to fluctuations, but subject to availability of funding and with prior approval when the change, results in need for additional Federal funding or to significantly reduce scope of the project. Fringe Benefits in the form of tuition or tuition remission. Publication and printing costs (must be identifiable with a particular cost objective). Recruitment costs provided that the size of the staff recruited and maintained is in keeping with workload requirements, costs of "help wanted" advertising, operating costs of an employment office necessary to secure and maintain an adequate staff, costs of operating an aptitude and educational testing program, travel costs of employees while engaged in recruiting personnel, travel costs of applicants for interviews for prospective
	Advertising media and corollary administrative costs that are specifically for performance of a Federal award to recruit personnel and solely for performance of a Federal award to recruit personnel; procure goods and services, program outreach and to dispose of scrap or surplus materials acquired in the Federal award. Capital expenditures for general purpose equipment of $5,000 or more, buildings and land. Conferences (e.g., meeting, retreat, seminar, symposium, workshop or event for disseminating technical info). Employee health and welfare costs (e.g., improvement of working conditions, employer-employee relations, employee health, and employee performance that include equitably distribution). See §200.437 for more detail. Entertainment costs that have a programmatic purpose and approved by the granting agency. Exchange rate cost increases due to fluctuations, but subject to availability of funding and with prior approval when the change, results in need for additional Federal funding or to significantly reduce scope of the project. Fringe Benefits in the form of tuition or tuition remission. Publication and printing costs (must be identifiable with a particular cost objective). Recruitment costs provided that the size of the staff recruited and maintained is in keeping with workload requirements, costs of "help wanted" advertising, operating costs of an employment office necessary to secure and maintain an adequate staff, costs of operating an aptitude and educational testing program, travel costs of employees while engaged in recruiting personnel, travel costs of applicants for interviews for prospective employment, and relocation costs incurred incident to recruitment of new employees, are allowable to the
	Advertising media and corollary administrative costs that are specifically for performance of a Federal award to recruit personnel and solely for performance of a Federal award to recruit personnel; procure goods and services, program outreach and to dispose of scrap or surplus materials acquired in the Federal award. Capital expenditures for general purpose equipment of $5,000 or more, buildings and land. Conferences (e.g., meeting, retreat, seminar, symposium, workshop or event for disseminating technical info). Employee health and welfare costs (e.g., improvement of working conditions, employer-employee relations, employee health, and employee performance that include equitably distribution). See §200.437 for more detail. Entertainment costs that have a programmatic purpose and approved by the granting agency. Exchange rate cost increases due to fluctuations, but subject to availability of funding and with prior approval when the change, results in need for additional Federal funding or to significantly reduce scope of the project. Fringe Benefits in the form of tuition or tuition remission. Publication and printing costs (must be identifiable with a particular cost objective). Recruitment costs provided that the size of the staff recruited and maintained is in keeping with workload requirements, costs of "help wanted" advertising, operating costs of an employment office necessary to secure and maintain an adequate staff, costs of operating an aptitude and educational testing program, travel costs of employees while engaged in recruiting personnel, travel costs of applicants for interviews for prospective employment, and relocation costs incurred incident to recruitment of new employees, are allowable to the extent that such costs are incurred pursuant to NMHU's standard recruitment program. Where NMHU uses
	Advertising media and corollary administrative costs that are specifically for performance of a Federal award to recruit personnel and solely for performance of a Federal award to recruit personnel; procure goods and services, program outreach and to dispose of scrap or surplus materials acquired in the Federal award. Capital expenditures for general purpose equipment of $5,000 or more, buildings and land. Conferences (e.g., meeting, retreat, seminar, symposium, workshop or event for disseminating technical info). Employee health and welfare costs (e.g., improvement of working conditions, employer-employee relations, employee health, and employee performance that include equitably distribution). See §200.437 for more detail. Entertainment costs that have a programmatic purpose and approved by the granting agency. Exchange rate cost increases due to fluctuations, but subject to availability of funding and with prior approval when the change, results in need for additional Federal funding or to significantly reduce scope of the project. Fringe Benefits in the form of tuition or tuition remission. Publication and printing costs (must be identifiable with a particular cost objective). Recruitment costs provided that the size of the staff recruited and maintained is in keeping with workload requirements, costs of "help wanted" advertising, operating costs of an employment office necessary to secure and maintain an adequate staff, costs of operating an aptitude and educational testing program, travel costs of employees while engaged in recruiting personnel, travel costs of applicants for interviews for prospective employment, and relocation costs incurred pursuant to NMHU's standard recruitment program. Where NMHU uses employment agencies, costs not in excess of standard commercial rates for such services.
	Advertising media and corollary administrative costs that are specifically for performance of a Federal award to recruit personnel and solely for performance of a Federal award to recruit personnel; procure goods and services, program outreach and to dispose of scrap or surplus materials acquired in the Federal award. Capital expenditures for general purpose equipment of $5,000 or more, buildings and land. Conferences (e.g., meeting, retreat, seminar, symposium, workshop or event for disseminating technical info). Employee health and welfare costs (e.g., improvement of working conditions, employer-employee relations, employee health, and employee performance that include equitably distribution). See §200.437 for more detail. Entertainment costs that have a programmatic purpose and approved by the granting agency. Exchange rate cost increases due to fluctuations, but subject to availability of funding and with prior approval when the change, results in need for additional Federal funding or to significantly reduce scope of the project. Fringe Benefits in the form of tuition or tuition remission. Publication and printing costs (must be identifiable with a particular cost objective). Recruitment costs provided that the size of the staff recruited and maintained is in keeping with workload requirements, costs of "help wanted" advertising, operating costs of an employment office necessary to secure and maintain an adequate staff, costs of operating an aptitude and educational testing program, travel costs of employees while engaged in recruiting personnel, travel costs of applicants for interviews for prospective employment, and relocation costs incurred incident to recruitment of new employees, are allowable to the extent that such costs are incurred pursuant to NMHU's standard recruitment program. Where NMHU uses employment agencies, costs not in excess of standard commercial rates for such services. Rental costs of property.
	Advertising media and corollary administrative costs that are specifically for performance of a Federal award to recruit personnel and solely for performance of a Federal award to recruit personnel; procure goods and services, program outreach and to dispose of scrap or surplus materials acquired in the Federal award. Capital expenditures for general purpose equipment of $5,000 or more, buildings and land. Conferences (e.g., meeting, retreat, seminar, symposium, workshop or event for disseminating technical info). Employee health and welfare costs (e.g., improvement of working conditions, employer-employee relations, employee health, and employee performance that include equitably distribution). See §200.437 for more detail. Entertainment costs that have a programmatic purpose and approved by the granting agency. Exchange rate cost increases due to fluctuations, but subject to availability of funding and with prior approval when the change, results in need for additional Federal funding or to significantly reduce scope of the project. Fringe Benefits in the form of tuition or tuition remission. Publication and printing costs (must be identifiable with a particular cost objective). Recruitment costs provided that the size of the staff recruited and maintained is in keeping with workload requirements, costs of "help wanted" advertising, operating costs of an employment office necessary to secure and maintain an adequate staff, costs of operating an aptitude and educational testing program, travel costs of employees while engaged in recruiting personnel, travel costs of applicants for interviews for prospective employment, and relocation costs incurred incident to recruitment of new employees, are allowable to the extent that such costs are incurred pursuant to NMHU's standard recruitment program. Where NMHU uses employment agencies, costs not in excess of standard commercial rates for such services. Rental costs of property. Scholarships, fellowships, and other programs of student aid.
	Advertising media and corollary administrative costs that are specifically for performance of a Federal award to recruit personnel and solely for performance of a Federal award to recruit personnel; procure goods and services, program outreach and to dispose of scrap or surplus materials acquired in the Federal award. Capital expenditures for general purpose equipment of $5,000 or more, buildings and land. Conferences (e.g., meeting, retreat, seminar, symposium, workshop or event for disseminating technical info). Employee health and welfare costs (e.g., improvement of working conditions, employer-employee relations, employee health, and employee performance that include equitably distribution). See §200.437 for more detail. Entertainment costs that have a programmatic purpose and approved by the granting agency. Exchange rate cost increases due to fluctuations, but subject to availability of funding and with prior approval when the change, results in need for additional Federal funding or to significantly reduce scope of the project. Fringe Benefits in the form of tuition or tuition remission. Publication and printing costs (must be identifiable with a particular cost objective). Recruitment costs provided that the size of the staff recruited and maintained is in keeping with workload requirements, costs of "help wanted" advertising, operating costs of an employment office necessary to secure and maintain an adequate staff, costs of operating an aptitude and educational testing program, travel costs of employees while engaged in recruiting personnel, travel costs of applicants for interviews for prospective employment agencies, costs not in excess of standard commercial rates for such services. Rental costs of property. Scholarships, fellowships, and other programs of student aid. Short-term, travel visa costs (as opposed to longer-term, immigration visas).
	Advertising media and corollary administrative costs that are specifically for performance of a Federal award to recruit personnel and solely for performance of a Federal award to recruit personnel; procure goods and services, program outreach and to dispose of scrap or surplus materials acquired in the Federal award. Capital expenditures for general purpose equipment of $5,000 or more, buildings and land. Conferences (e.g., meeting, retreat, seminar, symposium, workshop or event for disseminating technical info). Employee health and welfare costs (e.g., improvement of working conditions, employer-employee relations, employee health, and employee performance that include equitably distribution). See §200.437 for more detail. Entertainment costs that have a programmatic purpose and approved by the granting agency. Exchange rate cost increases due to fluctuations, but subject to availability of funding and with prior approval when the change, results in need for additional Federal funding or to significantly reduce scope of the project. Fringe Benefits in the form of tuition or tuition remission. Publication and printing costs (must be identifiable with a particular cost objective). Recruitment costs provided that the size of the staff recruited and maintained is in keeping with workload requirements, costs of "help wanted" advertising, operating costs of an employment office necessary to secure and maintain an adequate staff, costs of operating an aptitude and educational testing program, travel costs of employees while engaged in recruiting personnel, travel costs of applicants for interviews for prospective employment, and relocation costs incurred incident to recruitment of new employees, are allowable to the extent that such costs are incurred pursuant to NMHU's standard recruitment program. Where NMHU uses employment agencies, costs not in excess of standard commercial rates for such services. Rental costs of property. Scholarships, fellowships, and other programs of student aid.