

ASSESSMENT PLAN

Spanish Undergraduate

B.A.

Program Mission:

The mission of the Spanish program at NMHU is committed to the preservation, interpretation, and promotion of the multicultural heritage of the region. Thus, it recognizes the importance of the Spanish and Native American presence in the local and global community. The discipline further strive to integrate the language along their respective culture, literatures, and cultural products. The University Mission, the College of Arts and Sciences Mission, and the Spanish Outcomes Assessment Instrument are strongly linked in the following ways: (1) The mission to provide undergraduate education, (2) the mission to provide for forms of cultural literacy, and (3) the need to promote verbal and analytical skills.

Student Learning Outcome 1:

Oral Presentation Skills: The category evaluates the students' ability to present information clearly and effectively in the Spanish Language. Students are able to connect with the audience, through the effective use of Spanish, and the efficient use of technology. The student must demonstrate mastery of the argumentation, exemplification, analysis, and conclusion through effectiveness of language, clarity, precision and global competence.

NMHU Traits Specifically Linked to Student Learning Outcome 1

- Effective Communication Skills
- Effective Use of Technology

First Means of Assessment for Outcome 1:

Each semester the Outcomes Assessment Coordinator will request from faculty peers a set rubrics from oral presentations ("products") by Spanish majors or minors for 200 level courses in Spanish (Literature, Linguistics, Culture and Grammar). The Coordinator should obtain a statistically significant sampling. The Coordinator, either unassisted or with the assistance of other faculty appointed by the Department Chair, will evaluate the products according to all three assessment criteria using a 1-5 scale (failing, poor, adequate, good, excellent) with 5 being the highest. The "Criteria for Success" is a score of 3.5 or higher.

Class to evaluate the learning outcome 1: SPAN 211-Intermediate Spanish as Heritage Language 1

Student Learning Outcome 2:

Written Presentation and Reading comprehension: The category evaluates the student's ability to understand a literary, linguistic, or rhetorical work or phenomenon in essay or other type of written "product", demonstrating mastery of the conventions of writing. This includes evaluation of essay form (coherence, focus, organization, logic) and writing ability (effectiveness of language, prose style, clarity, precision, and grammar and usage).

NMHU Traits Specifically Linked to Student Learning Outcome 2

- Critical and Reflective Thinking Skills
- Effective Communication Skills

First Means of Assessment for Outcome 2:
