M.A. Southwest Studies, Concentration in History & Political Science

Plan Date: 11 April 2017

New Mexico Highlands University: Mission Statement (Adopted as part of new Strategic Plan, 2016)

New Mexico Highlands University is a public comprehensive university serving our local and global communities. Our mission is to provide opportunities for undergraduate and graduate students to attain an exceptional education by fostering creativity, critical thinking and research in the liberal arts, sciences, and professions within a diverse community.

Mission of the Department of History & Political Science

Because of its multi-ethnic composition, varied traditions, and rich history, the American Southwest lends itself to interesting and important studies. The M.A. in Southwest Studies marshals interdisciplinary resources in the study of the anthropology, history, and political science of the Southwest. Students will particularly demonstrate an understanding and appreciation of the unique social and cultural makeup of the greater Southwest and of the complex prehistory and history that produced it.

Goals of the Southwest Studies Program, History & Political Science Concentration.

It is our goal to train students for careers in teaching plus various kinds of professional employment. Professional applications of history include careers in public affairs, business, and the private sector where research, communication, and other liberal arts skills are required and appreciated. In addition, the program seeks to prepare students for advanced graduate programs in history and the law.

Expanded Statement of Institutional Purpose Linkage & Institutional Mission Reference:
